

EL PASO HERALD

Herald's Cooking School Closes; Many New Recipes Are Furnished

THIS afternoon will end the Herald's cooking school. The women of El Paso have answered the call for conservation in a manner in keeping with the demand of the times, and Mrs. Edna J. Evans has seen to it that the women who have attended her lectures and demonstrations were not sent away without having learned a great deal that they should know about how to help win the war by proper cooking of proper foods.

She has repeatedly pointed out that the government desires the housewife to save beef, pork, fat, sugar and wheat. And she has succeeded well in teaching how to accomplish this.

As on Thursday afternoon, the auditorium was filled on Friday afternoon, and the interest was as intense as at any time during the demonstrations. The need for conservation is a crying one all over the land and Mrs. Evans is constantly receiving calls from different cities to come and conduct the conservation school.

Below are given the recipes used by Mrs. Evans in her cooking on Friday afternoon.

One-King Cornbread.

2 cups corn meal.
1 cup white flour.
1 teaspoonful salt.
1 tablespoonful shortening.
1 cup cold water.
2 level teaspoonsful baking powder.
Mix dry ingredients, add shortening, water, egg. Pour into well greased pan and bake in moderate oven 35 minutes.

Mutton Steer Corn Dumplings.
1 1/2 pounds mutton.
1 quart water.
1 large chopped onion.
1 teaspoonful paprika.
1/2 teaspoonful pepper.
1/2 teaspoonful salt.
Salt to taste.

Cook until meat is tender, add five potatoes and enough boiling water to well cover the meat. Now add dumplings.

Butter Scotch Pie.
For crust take—
1 cup white flour.
1 level tablespoonful shortening.
1/2 cup cold water.
Mix, roll out, line pie tin and bake.

For filling—
1 cup brown sugar.
1 level tablespoonful butter.
3 rounded tablespoonfuls flour.
2 egg yolks.
1/2 cup milk.
Mix and cook well together, stirring.

Meatloaf For Pie.
Beat white eggs to foam. Add 1/2 teaspoonful cream of tartar or baking powder. Whip dry, add 1 level tablespoonful sugar for each egg white. Cover filling, put in moderate oven and let brown. This should require ten or 15 minutes.

Parties.
On Wednesday evening a delightful surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fahrkamp, 1219 East San Antonio street, by the Y. P. S. club of the Evangelical Lutheran church, in honor of Otto Hinz, who last September followed the call of his country and returned on a 10-day furlough. Mr. Hinz, formerly a voting member of the Evangelical Lutheran church and also of the Y. P. S. club, has made good progress in the army. He is a sergeant. A friend of his, also a member of the church and club, Oscar Gebler, has already been sent across to "somewhere in France" to help in the struggle against autocracy.

Those attending the surprise party were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fahrkamp, Mrs. E. P. Underwood, C. A. Bahr, O. C. Hinz, Henry Utes, Arthur Leuth, L. B. Roulter, E. F. Johnson, Wm. Hansen, George A. Bizer, David R. Beger, Frank J. Hinz, Theo. Brudner, Edwin H. Dophe, Wesley E. Paul, Wm. Wilker, Ernest A. Greim, Herman G. Olden, Philip, Willard Demmon, Leslie C. Hinz, Rev. J. H. Beck, Jos. S. Rose, Misses Helen, Clara, and Augusta Fahrkamp, Emma Hensler, Tillie Kleunder, Mildred Betzel, club reporter.

Lodges and Clubs.
The home of Mrs. T. W. Janier was beautifully decorated in Old Glory and red, white and blue streamers for the "Texas Independence" party given by Mrs. P. E. Flecken, Mrs. Janier's mother, to members of the Friday Knitting club, yesterday. The guests gathered early in the afternoon, happy over their patriotic tasks, refreshments and conversation. Later they had "their pictures taken," and then dropped into the Gremlin, for a malinee party—guests of the management. Several additional friends were asked by Mrs. Flecken, for the occasion, it being across to "somewhere in France" to help in the struggle against autocracy.

Those attending the surprise party were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fahrkamp, Mrs. E. P. Underwood, C. A. Bahr, O. C. Hinz, Henry Utes, Arthur Leuth, L. B. Roulter, E. F. Johnson, Wm. Hansen, George A. Bizer, David R. Beger, Frank J. Hinz, Theo. Brudner, Edwin H. Dophe, Wesley E. Paul, Wm. Wilker, Ernest A. Greim, Herman G. Olden, Philip, Willard Demmon, Leslie C. Hinz, Rev. J. H. Beck, Jos. S. Rose, Misses Helen, Clara, and Augusta Fahrkamp, Emma Hensler, Tillie Kleunder, Mildred Betzel, club reporter.

Red Cross Work.
Mrs. J. K. Janier, with the cooperation of the Women's club, is planning a big Red Cross benefit for the evening of Tuesday, March 12. While the affair is still in the embryonic stage, there will be four groups of songs of the allies—England, France, Italy and America—presented, each with its national anthem as the climax, and carousing in costume. The entertainment will be given at the Woman's club, and looks as one of the most important future happenings.

Red Cross in downtown workshop.

Something New in Collars.

BY GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

SLICELESS jackets or the effect thereof are cropping out in a hundred ways and will certainly be a popular note in summer fashions.

The scarf-like ends of the collar on this sports model are held by a belt and give the impression of a sleeveless jacket. White pique, bordered with deep blue, furnishes a charming color scheme. Deep blue pique outlines the deep collar, which turns sailor at the back. The waist is laced with a blue silk cord. The pockets are outlined with blue and this soft color again appears on belt, cuffs and skirt border. The hat of white straw is trimmed with a white wing and faced with blue.

Mess Kitchens For Hungry Germans Food Bootlegging Among Austrians

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—

Germany, to judge by the accounts of her newspapers, is a country with a magnificent system of food distribution, but a shortage of things to distribute. The German press is full of complaints that people are not getting even the meager ration of food. The way some of them feel about it is well expressed by a soldier who contributes the following recipe for a meal to Gastwirtschaftliche:

"Take the butter card, cook with it the beef card, and beat up with the egg card. Add potatoes and vegetable cards, and then add. For dessert, the milk card is heated up and the milk poured over the dish is seasoned with the sugar card, and the head and shoulders of the soldier with the soap card, and dried with the towel-order form."
